■

Gardening is one of South Australia's favourite pastimes and SALIFE Gardens & Outdoor Living is essential reading for anyone who likes to get their hands dirty in the back yard.

Whether you're a novice or an expert green-thumb, SALIFE's resident gardening expert Kim Syrus has all the advice you need to keep your patch looking perfect. Each season, Kim also shares vast his horticultural knowledge when it comes to what to plant and what to do in the veggie patch. Whatever the size of your garden or wherever it is SA, Kim's pages are full of ways to keep it blooming.

SALIFE Gardens & Outdoor Living also brings readers the latest products for the garden and best new releases of the season, as well as gardening books and outdoor furniture. For further inspiration, we also take an exclusive look at a South Australian feature garden and offer regular advice on indoor plants.

Part of the SALIFE magazine stable, SALIFE Gardens & Outdoor Living has been inspiring gardeners for more than a decade. If you want to reach an engaged gardening audience, SALIFE Gardens & Outdoor Living is the ideal place to be.

"It's SA focussed so has local suppliers, plants that grow in local gardens. It's inspiring to read about things happening in our state."
