ABOUT

The 40 Under 40 awards are a globally recognised program that celebrates the impact of the finest young South Australian entrepreneurs and changemakers.

The program seeks to acknowledge the movers and shakers of the young business world, the ground-breakers, the visionaries, the quiet achievers, the game changers, the inspiring young South Australians helping to shape the future of our state.

Now in its 7th year in South Australia, the 40 Under 40 program continues to grow and elevate the business and personal profiles of its recipients as well as provide access to the exclusive 40 Under 40 Alumni network.

The program recognises not only the personal determination and commercial drive of these young business leaders but also the philanthropic pursuits that balance these individuals' professional achievements. The 40 Under 40 finalists come from across industries and sectors, from startups to large corporations, but they are united in their passion for building the future of South Australia.

The 40 Under 40 are exceptional individuals who go beyond their field to stand out from the rest.

JUDGING CRITERIA & GUIDELINES

---

Below are the questions that all nominees are asked to answer, with a brief description of what the judging panel will be looking for from their response.

PART ONE: WHY YOU?

Nominees have been asked to make a short video or write a paragraph (max. 500 words) introducing themselves and answering why they should be selected as a finalist in this year's 40 Under 40 Awards. Weighting is 20/100

Consider the following:

- » Significant and important business or career achievements
- » Recognition at an individual or organizational level
- » What ultimately determined their success
- » Future plans and goals

PART TWO: BUSINESS FACTORS

Individuals who are leading South Australian businesses or organizations in a positive direction. This might be by starting a new business or creating change within a more established company. They could be working in a traditional for-profit business or in the business operations of a non-profit, community organisation, charity, research, etc. Nominees are asked to be specific about their contributions. Their story could inspire the next generation. (Max 500 Words). Weighting is 20/100

Consider the following:

- » Career story
- » Achievements and recognition
- » What determined their success thus far

PART THREE: SETBACKS AND CHALLENGES

To create change, nominees have likely taken some risks. They are asked to detail the adversities, risks, or challenges they have recognised and highlight the entrepreneurial and innovative actions they took to overcome them. What did they learn and how did it make them a better leader? (Max 500 Words) Weighting is 20/100

Consider the following:

- » What were their biggest business or career setbacks or challenges
- » How they dealt with the challenges
- » Takeaway experiences and lessons learned

JUDGING CRITERIA & GUIDELINES

PART FOUR: COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTION

The best South Australian businesses do more than just make a profit. Nominees are asked how they have left their mark on the local community and how they plan to grow this in the future. Involvement can be past or present; giving back to the community can be through the day-to-day work they do, or it might be in addition to a normal day job. Nominees are asked to explain how the work they do is making a difference to South Australia, and their plans to make an ongoing or bigger contribution in the future. (Max 500 Words) Weighting is 20/100

Consider the following:

- » Community involvement for individuals or a community
- » Endeavors that positively contribute to South Australia, personally or through business

PART FIVE: PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

Successful businesses often have big plans. Nominees are asked: what do you plan to achieve in the next few years? Nominees are asked to outline their plans for personal and business growth. (Max 500 Words) Weighting is 20/100

Consider the following:

- » Clear articulation of personal and business growth goals
- » Commitment to innovation and ability to adapt to market changes
